To Whom it May Concern,

I have been acquainted professionally with Gina LeMaster Brown for many years. She has handled our real estate transactions including sales, site locations, leases, tenant negotiations, billboard negotiations and more for our varied businesses.

She is skilled in all aspects of these dealings from her interpersonal skills and attention to detail, to her business savvy. She is on time or ahead of schedule. Her ability to relate to both sides of a transaction make her a valuable player that both sides can trust. If I had to choose three words to describe her, they would be: Hardworking, business intellect and trustworthy. Okay, that was five words and it still isn't enough to describe all of her amazing qualities.

She is a nonstop worker. She works on the road, while at home or in the office. She is always multitasking but remains professional and respectful through it all. There is not much that she can't do and it is a privilege to me to endorse her to anybody and everybody. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like to discuss further.

Sincerely,

Gary Larson
